15 - 17 May 2009
Wellington

Take the opportunity to attend the National Maritime Heritage Seminar to be held in New Zealand's "Harbour Capital" – Wellington from 15 - 17 May 2009.

A marvellous range of New Zealand's best-known and respected speakers on many things maritime – early voyages and exploration, whaling and coastal trading, immigration, ships and ship builders, the Navy and Government vessels, ship wrecks and much more.

Invited speakers include Dr Robin Watt, Ian Church, Joan Druett, Dr Brad Patterson, Carol and James Ramage, Ken Scadden, Gavin McLean and Bob McDougall.

Saturday's programme concludes with the launch of the much-awaited book "The Gold of the General Grant" by Madelene Ferguson and Ken Scadden, followed by the Seminar dinner at Skippers Restaurant, Oriental Bay.

Enjoy a break on Sunday with a lunch cruise (1½ hours) on the well-known "Sweet Georgia" on Wellington's scenic harbour.

Seminar Venue

Rutherford House, Victoria University,
Bunny Street, Wellington.

Opposite the Wellington railway station and adjacent to the City Bus Terminal.

Seminar Fee includes lunch on Saturday, and morning and afternoon teas on Saturday and Sunday.

Special Interest Groups

Underwater Heritage and Ship Restoration
15 MAY 2009

The Seminar weekend will be preceded by a gathering of two maritime special interest groups on Friday 15 May from 9am - 5pm.

This is a great opportunity to compare notes and discuss events with specialists and advisors in your field of interest.

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP VENUES

The Underwater Heritage SIG venue is the Museum of Wellington City & Sea
at Queens Wharf, Wellington

The Ship Restoration SIG venue is at
HMNZS Olphert, Taranaki Street, Wellington

Both SIG gatherings are followed by a visit to Wellington's historic floating crane, 'Hikitia', and a social function at the Museum of Wellington City & Sea.

Special Interest Group Fee includes lunch, morning and afternoon teas, and the evening social function.
